month ago when a man as a woman called there, did not see him. This story who was at Dr. Carman's on the evening in question.

An automobile stopped in front of the house and a person dressed in pany. Moran says Bardes, who is female attire got out and walked up the path to the front door, where the good terms with his relatives at the llector was sitting waiting for Dr. time he was operating the roofing Carman, who was out. The stranger company. walked around the house, looked in the window of Dr. Carman's office Carman has set in throughout Nassau County. One cause of it is the fac-The collector says as the that the authorities employed William visitor stepped into the car there was J. Burns to make an investigation a display of a trousers leg, revealing and Burns is said to have buildozed that somebody in disguise was seek. Mrs. Carman in her own home. ing Dr. Carman.

Myer D. Newman, allas "Duke in a statement to an Evening World Leon," of No. 912 Freeman street, reporter to-day predicted that his the Bronx, was arrested in the court own case will not stand up in the at Mineola at noon to-day formal examination at the Freeport while he was talking to newspaper Town Hall on Monday. Sheriff Pettit reporters. He is the man who told is busy to-day looking up the record the Nassau County authorities a few of Bardes. days ago that a man named Joe The man, George Golder, who swore Anderson had been hired for $50 by at the inquest that he saw Mrs. Carwoman to kill somebody in Dr. man, fully dressed, shortly before and Carman's house and had fied to shortly after the shooting on the Kansas City after the woman had ground floor of the Carman house, has taken the revolver from his hands made an affidavit for the defense reand completed the job herself.

an, who is not credited by mony. the Nassau County officials, was telling the reporters that he had lost his sob but would collect what money was to him with the aid of a gun when it was noticed that the outlines a revolver were apparent under the Il of his coat. Sheriff Pettit was otified. He arrested Newman and found a loaded pletol in his hip ket. Newman was arraigned bere Justice of the Peace Seaman and seld for the Grand Jury on a charge of violating the Sullivan law.

SAYS HE HAS INFORMATION TO

After Newman had been held for the Grand Jury Sheriff Pettit arrected a man giving the name of Nick breakdown in the Mineola Jall at 10.30 arode, who was hanging around the o'clock this morning and Dr. Clegsourt-house. Arode admitted that he had come out from New York with succumbed to the long nervous strain and needed rest and quiet rather than Mrs. Carman, it was announced this afternoon, is in a highly nervous state. Her pulse is over 100 and she after Dr. Carman had left his wife. has a fever. Dr. Cleghorn, the jall Dr. Carman motored over from Freephysician, says her condition is the aral outcome of the strain to bottle of medicine which he gave to high she has been subjected.

George M. Levy, counsel for Mrs. , said to-day that he had ine of George Golder and Elwood rdes, the chief witnesses for the Mr. Lavy care the law officers man County, instead of followall clues, have bent their efforts by the Grand Jury, of which Ray-Ira. Carman solely because she ad- man. Daniel Rayner, Alvah R. Smith. d she was isalous of her husband ad had installed a dictograph in her Verity of Freeport are members of the so by which she might overhear conversations with women pa-

The Sheriff and the District-Attor- VIEWS EXPRESSED BY MANY of de not appear to think much of to-day that he believed he was justi-fied in issuing a warrant for Mrs. Cerman's arrest, but he would as one of the officials working on the if the State's evidence falls to stand in the formal examination.

The Sheriff has interviewed persons the throw doubt on Bardes's story of having seen a woman answering description of Mrs. Carman on the lawn of the Carman residence the window of Dr. Carman's s just before Mrs. Bailey was hat and killed. One of these is Florsee Rayner, who lives in Helen creet, Freeport, a mile from the maye Bardes called on her at o'clock on the evening of June 20, less than an hour after Mrs. Carman on and returned to her home with at 11 o'clock. During the two a balf hours be was in her comby he did not mention the incident now claims to have observed at the Carman residence.

GIRL SAYS BARDES CALLED ON HER THAT EVENING.

This in itself would not be strange, Bardes did not know anybody been shot. He thought the reet be heard was the explosion of an tire. Another witnessne fidney Schlose-contradicts Miss Raynor, saying that Bardes was within two blocks of the Carman home at o'clock on the night of June 30 and witnesses who are called, and he may thew all about the shooting at that succeed in breaking down the testito do this it may result in the dis-Bardes is well known in Long Island City. In September, 1913, he charge of Mrs. Carman. married Miss Sadie Moran of No. 10 NO'N JOF HASTENING GRANT terson street and took her to live at No. 473 Bedford avenue, Brooklyn. Acorn Roofing Company of Brooklyn, but his brother-in-law, James D. Moran, said to-day that he had never been able to locate the offices of the firm.

en joined Bardes about a year witnesses we have then and will not se, he says, but broke the really is. therehip last February when it ame necessary to increase his in- evidence we now have, but are ready at if the firm were to be kept to follow up any clues that develop oth later Mrs. Hardes laft her and returned to the home of the new witness, with a fine toothed street. Brooklyp, and he has a favorable to Mrs. Carman. A point women burried from the house after the shooting by way of the front lawn and nobody saw them go, indi-eating that the murderer could have

Mrs. Carman suffered a partia horn, the jail physician, was sum moned to attend her. He said she was not seriously ill, but had finally

CITIZENS OF FREEPORT.

Despite the evidence on which Mrs.

Carman was arrested, not a single free after her arraignment on Monday before Justice Norton. This belief is due to the lack of direct evidence and reports that the most damaging of that given at the inquest will be modified or changed when the witnesses are cross-ex-

That the case will not go to the a possibility Mrs. Carman will be freed on Monday was stated directly to an Evening World reporter by Assistant District-Attorney Weeks last evening in the Nassau Court House.

had been placed in the civil prisoners

Mr. Weeks, who has been at the right hand of District-Attorney

Smit. uuring the entire | julry into the Freeport mystery, "that Mrs. "arman may be discharged from eustody on ... iday after her examination before Justice of the Peace ! orton, sitting as a

"During the course of that examination Mrs. Carman's counsel, George Lovy, will have the right and the opportunity to cross-question all the mony of some of then. If he is able timony. We will be able to call any

"We have presented the strongest

"We intend to so at Elwood Bardes.

committing Ma istrate.

"There is a possibility," said amined.

cell in the jail.

got away without being seen.

medical treatment.

"As to the presentation of the case to the Grand Jury, we may not take ase proved such a shock to Mrs. Bardes that she collapsed and since Mrs. Carman's case before that body yesterday has been confined to ber before next week. I doubt whether According to Moran, Bardes's mother lives at No. 280 Rodney brother. Garfield, who is connected with the American Woollen Comtaken the step he did take and arrest Mrs. Carman, we would unquestionably have gone before thirty-one years old, was not on the Grand Jury without delay. Now that Mrs. Carman is, however, in custody there is no need to hurry. We can take time to build up our case and make it as strong as possible.

county we want only the best and $1000,000 BAIL. "The attitude of the people of Freeport toward Mrs. Carman is ex-Assistant District-Attorney Weeks pressed, I think, in the fact that at least haif a dozen men of the village have declared to me that they stood ready to furnish $100,000 ball if it should be necessary to obtain the release of Mrs. Carman, and if she

George Levy, Mrs. Carman's counsel, announced last night that at the inquest that he saw Mrs. Carman, fully dreased, shortly before and shortly after the shooting on the ground floor of the Carman house, has made an affidavit for the defense repudiating the main points of his testimony.

PHYSICIAN AT THE JAIL TO TREAT MRS. CARMAN.
The two women who were in Dr. Carman's waiting room at the time of the shooting and disappeared in the confusion have been located. It is reported that they sent word to counsel for Mrs. Carman where they before the Coroner that he had seen Mrs. Carman on the porch of her house and three times in the house counsel for Mrs. Carman where they on the night of the murder, one of these times being in the office of the doctor immediately after the shooting. The affidavit, which was witnessed by Clarence Edwards, a Freeport no-tary public, repudiated practically all for the defense is the fact that these of the material statements he made when examined during the inquest as to the identification of Mrs. Carman. GOLDER CHANGES HIS STORY IN AFI IDAVIT.

Golder stated in the affidavit he woman he saw was dressed all in white that it was a woman so dressed that he saw on the porch when he arrived at the doctor's office and also in the office after Mrs. Bailey had been murdered. The woman in white, he deposed, also assisted him to place Mrs. Balley's body on the couch.

This is in direct contradiction of the testimony he gave at the inquest, his statement then being that the woman Dr. Cleghorn was summoned shortly who passed the waiting room where whole to act.

Who passed the waiting room where whole to act.

Mr. Warburg's telegram to the white waist. In tact, he identified President was not given out, but after port shortly after 9 o'clock with a Mrs. Carman. He remained in the was asked to stand before him with her sister, Mrs. Powell, who wore all white on that night.

The Nassau County Grand Järy which met to-day took up a collection of minor cases that have been accommulating for weeks, including at Belmont Park race track. The murger of Mrs. Balley was not considered by the Grand Jury, of which Raymond E. Cheshire of Syomet is foreman. Daniel Rayner, Alvah R. Smith. John T. Davison and Wallace R. John T. Davison and Wallace R. o do anything but tell a straightforward story.

"I asked him if he had not 'guessed' Grand Jury. Clarence Mackay was on at some of the things he had told on the stand, and after a moment's thought he replied that he had the panel, but it is said in Mineola 'guessed a little, perhaps.'

"Then I asked him why he had done this, and he replied that he had much more about the whole case than I told him to get into my car with Dr. Carman and me and come to my predict that the Grand Jury would indict her. Many officials as well as office. There he made an affidavit citizens expess a belief she will go which repudiates all the material things he testified to at the inquest." ore the Coroner.

in a cell, Mr. Levy went back again for a further conference with her between 6 and 7 o'clock. He plainly showed the effects of his talk with her later, as his eyes were red with undoubted crying. He would not disclose anything of his talk with her. Before his arrival at the jall, Mrs. Carman had a pot of tea and two chicken sandwiches sent in to her. Of this slight meal she partook very sparingly, eating only a part of one of the sandwiches. About 8 o'clock she expressed a wish to go to bed. Grand Jury to-day and that there is she expressed a wish to go to bed, and after Matron Pettit had seen her comfortable she left her for the

WILLGIVE $250,000 FOR MODEL STREET CLEANING

He said he was connected with the Justice Norton, sitting as Coroner, section. At this afternoon's meeting that led him to issue the warrant the corporate stock budget committee upon which she is now held in the reported favorably . the plan, and county jail at Mineola. On Monday on July 30 the money will be approshe is to be examined upon this tes- printed.

The district extends from Twelfth street to Fortieth street and from the so in establishing the Bardes-Moran be restricted to those who testified East River to Fifth and Sixth aveag Company, with offices at No. during the Coroner's inquest. The nues. Settlement workers and many Broadway. Long Island City. hearing will serve the purpose of citizens have voiced their objections, course put more than $2,000 into the showing us how strong our case declaring that if money should be declaring that if money should be spent, it should be spent on the east side, where conditions are trying.

cans, covered carts, twelve motor tractors, which will not only sweep the streets but sprinkle them, and other cans, covered carts, twelve motor tractors, which will not only sweep the streets but sprinkle them, and other devices to prevent disagreeable features of street cleaning and garbage under the law of this State; "The Independent Rabbi Wise Kranken Uniteraturans versin of Caernowists, Succession."

COMMITTEE VOTES AGAINST JONES:  with the evidence we now have, because we feel we must have the very strongest kind of evidence in this Votes to Report Adversely on Nomination of Chicago Man to Reserve Board.

NEIGHBORS OFFER TO PUT UP WILSON WILL FIGHT.

Means to Get Both Appointees Confirmed by Full Senate -Warburg Will Serve.

WASHINGTON, July 9.-By a vote of 7 to 4, Senate Banking Committee this afternoon decided to report adversely on the nomination of Thomas B Jones of Chicago, to the Federal Reserve Board. The Committee decided also to postpone "indefinitely" further consideration of Paul M. Warburg of New York Mr. Warburg to-day has reconsidered his request that President Wilson withdraw his nomination as a member of the Federal Reserve Board on condition that he need not consent to appear before the Senate Banking Committee to be cross-examined.

The President conferred with Senators Shafroth and Thomas to-day and they told him that even though the Senate Committee reports Warburg and Thomas D. Jones unfavorably, they are convinced confirmation can be secured. Warburg will not appear before the Senstances according to the informatio received at the White House.

After receipt of a telegram from Mr. Warburg to-day it was said by officials close to the President that an active fight would be made for the confirmation. It was declared that should the Banking Committee fall to report the nomination favorably the President expects the Senate as a

Mrs. Carman as the woman when she was asked to stand before him with its receipt officials at the White House the appointment and that he would continue to stand behind his nom-

The President explained his support of Mr. Jones by saving that he had known him for more than twenty years and that on many matters he trusted Mr. Jones's judgment better than he did his own, but he did. As soon as he said that he did not include political questions in that category, however.

Senators opposed to the confirmation of Mr. Warburg unless he appears to answer questions pointed out to-day what they regarded as the committee of one to discover just When Mr. Levy was asked if he intended getting an affidavit from Bardes he said: "No. I have only the greatest pity for that man. I had two talks with him and he told me two different stories about what he heard and saw at the Carman house that the resolution introduced and saw at the Carman house that the resolution introduced and saw at the Carman house that the resolution introduced and saw at the Carman house that the more and saw at the Carman house that the more and saw at the Carman house that the more and saw at the Carman house that the more and saw at the Carman house that the more and saw at the Carman house that the more and saw at the Carman house that the more and saw at the Carman house that the more and saw at the Carman house that the more and saw at the Carman house that the more and saw at the Carman house that the more and saw at the Carman house that the more and saw at the Carman house that the rules the first defeat for the Administration what Police Committee of one to discover just what Police Commissioner Woods will permit. He will report at the meting to-night. He will report at the mation. It leaked out that the rules the mation is the committee of one to discover just what Police Commissioner Woods will permit. He will report at the multiple to the defeat for the Administration what Police Commissioner Woods will permit. He will report at the multiple to the difference of the defeat for the Administration what Police Commissioner Woods will permit. He will report at the multiple to the properties of the defeat for the Administration what Police Commissioner Woods will permit. He will report at the multiple to the properties of the defeat for the Administration what Police Commissioner Woods will permit. He will report at the multiple to the properties of the defeat for the Administration what the properties will permit the properties of the called up a resolution introduced months ago by Senator Kern, the majority leader, increasing the membership of the banking committee. It Tuesday night, and both of these dif-fered from the testimony he gave be-majority leader, increasing the mem-force the issue and bring about a

FATAL GAME ON ROOF.

of an apartment house at No. 345 Linden street, Williamsburg, ended tragically years old, of No. 123 First avenue, Man-Costly Experiment Will Be Made hattan, plunged four stories to costly Experiment Will Be Made hattan, plunged four stories are child hattan, plunged four stories down an poportunity to cross-question all the witnesses who are called, and he may succeed in breaking down the testimony of some of them. If he is able to do this it may result in the discharge of Mrs. Carman.

NO'N OF HASTENING GRANDULY: CTION.

"It was the testimony given before Justice Norton, sitting as Coroner, section. At this afternoon's meeting witnesses who are called, and he may be in Murray Hill and Gramercy with her mother, Mrs. Mary Devistino, was visiting relatives at the Linden street address. The little girl went to the roof to play at the suggestion of her three cousins, all under ten years old. A game of hilde-and-seek, in which the chimneys were used as hiding places, was in full swith her mother, Mrs. Mary Devistino, was visiting relatives at the Linden street address.

The little girl went to the roof to play at the suggestion of her three of hilde-and-seek, in which the chimneys were used as hiding places, was in full swith her mother, Mrs. Mary Devistino, was visiting relatives at the Linden street address.

The little girl went to the roof to play at the suggestion of her three of hilde-and-seek, in which the chimneys were used as hiding places, opened the unlocked scuttered and the suggestion of her three of hilde-and-seek, in which the chimneys were used as hiding place, opened the unlocked scuttered the fashionable Murray Hill and Gramercy

The little girl went to the roof to play at the suggestion of her three of hilde-and-seek, in which the chimneys were used as hiding place, opened the unlocked scuttered the suggestion of her three of hilde-and-seek, in which the chimneys were used as hiding place, opened the unlocked scuttered the suggestion of her three of the suggestion of her three and the suggestion of her three of the suggestion of her three of the suggestion of her three of the suggestion of her three and the suggestion of her three of the suggestion of her th

Policeman Hayden Exonerated. Policeman John Hayden of the East Eighty-eighth street station was dis-Eighty-eighth street station was dis-charged in Special Sessions in the Bronx to-day on the charge of having assaulted Solomon Berger, a tailor, of No. 497 East One Hundred and Sixty-seventh street. Hayde was arrested by order of Magis-trate Krotel in the Night Court June 21, when he arraigned Berger for dis-orderly conduct. Berger had made a counter charge, which he withdrew to-day.

This Name Is Too Much for the This is the name of a proposed society to which Justice Giegerich in Supreme

Banker Who, Despite Opposition, Will Go on Federal Reserve Board

Make Speeches Throughout

Land Advocating Force.

Michael J. O'Connor, Irish patriot, Adriatic. Mr. O'Connor is rich in his more wealth in his avowed mission of

Many years ago he came here grounds with other boys and once he was caught inside the walls and cud-town, which was the seat of Rhod-

Collision Narrowly Averted and Driver Is Fined.

was fined $25 by Magistrate McQuade was fined $25 by Magistrate McQuade in Jefferson Market Court to-day on a charge of reckless driving. Fago drives a water wagon for the Street Cleaning Department and was in Lafayette street, to-day(when a policeman saw Mayor Mitchel approaching in his automobile. The officers commanded Fago to turn out of the way and when he did not do so placed him under arrest.

A collision was averted by the Mayor's chauffeur making a quick turn.

Dr. Jordan President of N. E. A.

ST. PAUL, July 9 .- Dr. David Starr

Jordan of Leland Stanford University

DIED.

Funeral Saturday, July 11, at 9.30 A.

12th at., where a requiem mass will be offered for the repose of her soul. Inand Susan McPartland.

Michael Fago, of No. 188 Essex street, gelled by the gamekeeper.

freeing the land of his birth.

'REDS" ASK POLICE IRISH PATRIOT SAILS TO URGE COUNTRYMEN TO PERMIT PARADE TO FIGHT FOR FREEDOM WITH BOMB VICTIMS Michael J. O'Connor Will

fuse permission, there will be a meeting of Alexander Berkman and other Anarchist leaders at the offices of Mother Earth, No. 74 West One Hundred and Nineteenth street, this evebe defied.

Frank Fancilleri visited Police Headquarters this afternoon as a himself said to-day that he was exerting all his influence to avoid this and was counseling the complete

and was counseling the complete old country. I will start in first with my own town. Then I will go out in abandonment of the plans unless the country making speeches, advotately could be carried out with public cating force to carry on the fight.

"It is the only way that the freeabandonment of the plans unless th approval.

"What we want to do," said he, "is dom of Ireland can be accomplished. We have had enough of Parliato meet the committee bringing the mentary procedure, enough of talk. ashes from Fresh Pond Crematory at The time is past for that. Home the Thirty-fourth Street Ferry, march down First avenue to Seventeenth be opposed with force. Then they the Thirty-fourth Street Ferry, march down First avenue to Seventeenth be opposed with force. Then they street, thence to Broadway and thus to Union Square. Or we are willing and get into line in the compulsion of Home Rule for all Ireland." Falls Four Stories to Death. to assemble in Washington Square and march to Union Square, avoiding Fifth avenue as traffic regula-

"I hope the Commissioner will approve one of these plans. If not, though, I hope there will be no trouble."

But there are hotheads among the appropriate who hope that Mr. Weetle Anarchists who hope that Mr. Woods will decline permission for any public display. They count on being able to control the sentiment of the meeting to-night and to force a conflict with the police on Saturday.

ACTION AIMED AT LIPTON.

riminal Prosecution Suggester Based on Canteen Scandal.

LONDON, July 9 .- Criminal prosecuion of Sir Thomas Lipton, the chair man, and his co-directors in Lipton Limited was suggested by Sir Arthu Markham, a Liberal member in a question addressed to the Attorney-Genera tion addressed to the Attorney-General appearing in to-day's Parliamentary papers. The question, the putting of which was postponed by arrangement, asks whether in view of Justice Darlang's statement that the defendants in the army canteen scandal case were acting upon a system which was encouraged by the directorate of the company, and the Attorney-General "has laid the papers in the case before the Public Prosecutor with a view to criminal proceedings for fraud and bribery against Bir Thomas Lipton and his co-directors."

Bir Thomas Lipton and tora."

The question arose out of the recent conviction of nine army officers and eight civillan employees of Lipton Limited on charges of receiving and giving brites to influence the alletment of supply contracts for the army contracts. LOST, FOUND AND REWARDS.

Legislators and Judges Among Friend of Blanquet, Who Has

Those on Lists of L. & N. and Another Road.

Commerce Board Says U. S. Dictator Dare Not Try to Officials Tie Themselves to Companies for Favors Given.

WASHINGTON, July 9.-Characterizing the distribution of free trans-portation by railroads as "a menace to the institutions of a free people, the Interstate Commerce Commission to-day reported to the Senate the results of its investigations under Senator Lea's resolution directed against the Louisville and Nashville, and the Nashville, Chattanooga and St. Louis

The report says that curing 1918 the two roads distributed free passes representing more than 11,000,000 miles of travel, valued at $340,260.61, to more than 34,000 individuals in every walk of life.

The report says the Louisville and bers: United States Senator, 1: Representatives, 2: other United States of-Representatives, 2.183; other State officials, 1.769: Judges, 89. The Nashville, Chattanooga and St.

Louis gave to United States officials, other than members of Congress, 151; State Senators, 5,814; State Representatives, 5,439; other State officials, 1,086; Judges, 170.

The commission informed the Sen ate that while it could issue no order in the special investigation pursued under the resolution, it was making a general investigation in which it intends to issue an order dealing with the practice.

Discussing its findings, the commission said:

"In order to property compile the required information lists of passholders in the various classes were prepared. Such lists reveal the mandipped into practically every domain of public and private life, througa sailed to-day on the White Star liner the instrumentality of the free pass. There is scarcely a walk of life which own right and has the backing of is not represented in this procession of recipients of passes, from the Federal bench to the local politician and the sheriff who summons the jury.

poor boy. When he was a lad he The threads represented by these lived in the town of Leitrim, in the names tie thousands of citizens to the county of the same name. There was carrier through improper relations. a big castle which frowned down on The lack of morality reflected by the the little town and was the property facts here compiled is a menace to of a powerful land baron. Young the institutions of a free people. O'Connor played about the castle accepted money bribes seem to be as | inet Minister) has made $500,000. Now he owns the castle and the ready to tie them. Men pledge their man. He ought to let the last mem town, which was the seat of Rhoderic O'Connor, last of the Connaught kings. It's a pretty place on the business, in city councils and administrative boards, in courts of justice, leans won't let me be killed. They Shannon, covering an area of about CRACK SAFE, GET $700.

In Second Attempt Burglars Sound Alarm and Are Scared Off.

Burglars early to-day broke into the salesroom of the Alfred Peats Company, wall paper dealers, at 235-239 Washington street, Newark, N. J., by cutting out a small rear window. With a sledge hammer they knocked off the combina-tion lock of a big safe, then drilled tion lock of a big safe, then drilled through the inner plate, slipped the boit and stole $700. Then they broke down a door leading to a side hall, went upstairs to Arion Hall, a dance resort, and by cutting through a plaster partition got into the upper floor of R. E. McDonald's shoe house at Nos. 105 and 107 Market street. The safe was not locked, but it was connected with burgiar alarm system, and when the burgiars opened the door an alarm was sounded in the officer of the company. Two special officers ran to the McDonald establishment, which they entered with a key The burgiars had got away.

RAILROADS' 34,000 | HUERTA REPORTED FREE PASSES WENT | AS GOING INSANE: TO BIG AND LITTLE PLIGHT DESPERATE

Reached Vera Cruz, Reports Reign of Terror.

CALLED PUBLIC MENACE. ARMY READY TO REVOLT.

Leave for Fear Soldiers Would Kill Him.

Ry United Pres.) VERA CRUZ, July 9.-Huerte's plight in Mexico City is desperate. Day by day terror grows with the fear that the Dictator is growing insane with renewed drinking. This was the picture of the Mexican capital brought to-day by Alfredo Noriega, Gen. Blanquet's most intimate friend, and through him close to the inner circle of those who now rule Mexico City. En route to Madrid he turned against Huerta and for the first time revealed the desperate plight in which the Dictator now stands. He gives Huerta only two weeks more of power.

"Only Gens. Blanquet and Maure Nashville gave in the following num- holding the entire army back from revolting against Huerta," he said. "Huerta would leave the capital if ficials, 139; State Senators, 1,556; State he could but he doesn't dare to for fear the army would learn of it, turn against him, and rend him to pieces

"Huerta does not even dare send his wife from the city, as it would be a signal for his downfall. He discharges every member of the government who tries to send his own family away. Terror exists among the leading Mexicans of the capital Many believe Huerta is now insane." TELLS THE STORY OF HOW MADERO WAS SLAIN.

"How was Madero killed?" was naked.

"Madero and Vice-President Suares were taken out behind the penitentiary by Col. Francesco Cardenas, stood up against a wall and shot," was the reply. "Cardenas then shot up an automobile and told the story ner in which these carriers have about the attempted rescue of the two men. I was never a friend of Madero, but that is the truth about how he died.

"I think it was Huerta personally who gave the death order," continued Noriega, "and at least Huerta was responsible for the order, because Cardenas got it from Mondragon. The United States is right when it blames Huerta for the killing of Madero.

"There is a carnival of loot in the capital now. Jorge Huerta, the President's son, has made $2,000,000 gold in the past year. He is a terrible man "These citizens who sell their influ- who has killed scores to satisfy perence quite as much as though they sonal grudges. Moheno (former Cab.

"Huerta is acting like an insane icans won't let me be killed. They can't recognize Carranza if he kills me, because they wouldn't recognize me after Madero was killed.

"Look out for the blow-up in the capital. Blanquet got me out of the country by obtaining for me the appointment as Second Secretary of the Mexican Embassy in Madrid. He saw what was coming. Hundreds of other Mexicans are trying to find excuses for leaving.

"My prophecy is that when Villa nears the capital the army in the city will revolt and slay Huerta. Then will come a reign of unspeakable terror. give Huerta two weeks."

Colon Bars New Orleans Ships. COLON, July 9.- The sanitary authorities here have imposed a quarantine on all arrivals from New Orleans, because of the finding of bubonic plague there.

PENNY A POUND PROFIT IN the Biggest—Cleanest—Brightest Daylight Candy Factory in the World, Our Master and an army of more than 1,000 immaculately clad employees produce LOFT SWEETS at the rate of 30 Tons per day under the most rigidly maintained sanitary conditions of manufacture.

ORANGE SULTANA BONBONS—The most luctions Florida Oranges, blend-ed with richest Sugar Creus, made into delicious lumns and lucyped off with FBUMD BOX 10C was elected President of the National Education Association at the annual business meeting to-day. He was un-opposed. President Swain automatically became First Vice-President. Let Us Tempt You With the M'PARTLAND.—Suddenly, at her residence, No. 532 East 17th st., on July 8, MARY M'PARTLAND, widow of Hugh

Following
ASSORTED HARD CANDIES—A collection of all the popular favorities so well liked by every one. Some of the solides are Fepnermint Cups. Fruit and Nat Blossoms, Twists.
Curis. Honey Rock and a 25c host of others. FOUND TIN 54 BARCLAY STREET Come 8 30 P. M. 84L, 10 P.M. 20 CORTLANDT STREET

CHOCOLATE COVERED FRUIT CHEAMS—This dainty has for its least a portion of some choice fresh fruit inclosed in a Jacket of pur frugram Chocolate.

10c Special for Friday
ASSORTED TAFFIES—Soft, chewy morrels of deliciousness: 14 different kinds, flavored with pungent Mints, Fruits and Spices, Each piece wrapped in sanitary paraffin paper.
Our reguinr 24e goods.
POUND BOX
190

206 BROADWAY

147 NASSAU STREET

1000 1 P. M. Sat. 10 P. M.

1000 1 P. M. Sat. 2 P. M.

206 WEST 1254 STREET

Close 11.50 P. M. Dally,

28 WEST B4th STREET

Close 17 P. M. Sat. 10 P. M.

28 WEST B4th STREET

Close 17 P. M. Sat. 10 P. M.

Close 12 P. M. Dally,

187 MARKET ST. STREET

Close 13 P. M. Dally,

187 MARKET ST. STREET

Close 13 P. M. Dally,

187 MARKET ST. STREET

Close 13 P. M. Dally,

187 MARKET ST. STREET

Close 13 P. M. Dally,

188 MARKET ST. STREET

Close 13 P. M. Dally,

188 MARKET ST. STREET

Close 13 P. M. Dally,

189 MARKET ST. STREET

Close 13 P. M. Dally,

189 MARKET ST. STREET

Close 13 P. M. Dally,

189 MARKET ST. STREET

Close 13 P. M. Dally,

189 MARKET ST. STREET

Close 13 P. M. Dally,

189 MARKET STREET

Close 15 P. M. Dally,

180 MARKET STREET

Clos 20 CORTLANDT STREET
Close 11 P. Dall
PARK ROW & NASSAU ST.
Close 11 M. Dall
400 BROOME STREET
Close 17 P. M. Bat. 10 P. M.
58 BAST 234 STREET
Close 10 P. M. Dall
472 FULTON S. BROOKLIN
Close 11.50 P. M. Ball
The specified weight